DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 5-7, 16-19 withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on March 5, 2007.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Selle.

Selle has member 72 with axis perpendicular to rail 28 and coupled to module 60 for rotation, handle 114 pivotally connected to the member about the axis of member 112 perpendicular to the axis of member 72 and optionally oriented 360 degrees relative to the rail, including a parallel position, and projection 74. Rotation of the member 72 is seen in figures 4-5. The system of Selle is “for attaching....” and the preamble is not read as limiting the structure of the device as claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 1-4, 8-14, 20-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Selle.

Paragraph 3 above is incorporated by reference. Selle is not distinct as to whether the handle 114 is pivotally movable about the pin 112 or whether the pivot movement occurs between pin 112 and the nut 96 with the pin and handle fixedly secured together. Either relationship is commonly known in the art and obvious to use here to affect the desired end effect of Selle and therefore not a patentable distinction.

Applicant may seasonally challenge, for the official record in this application, this and any other statement of judicial notice in timely manner in response to this office action. Please specify the exact statement to be challenged. Applicant is reminded, with respect to the specific challenge put forth, of the duty of disclosure under Rule 56 to disclose material which is pertinent to patentability including claim rejections challenged by applicant.

Specifically as to claim 1, the engagement and disengagement with the axle 72 moved about its axis is seen in figures 4-5.

As to claim 3, the handle is configured for quarter turn movement and more.

Art Unit: 3612

As to claim 4, Selle has a thermoplastic washer. Such washers of resilient material, hence springs, are of common knowledge in the art and obvious to use here to secure the handle in locked position.

As to claim 8, the nut 96 is rotatable to any desired position.

As to claim 10, the projection engages side portions 50, 52 of the rail, both flanges, claim 11, and doing so in an interference relationship, claim 20.

7. Claims 1-4, 8-14, 20-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kimura in view of Selle.

In view of the diverse interpretations of claim preambles, particularly as noted in Kropa v. Robie and Mahlman 88 USPQ 478 (CCPA 1951), a further rejection is made:

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to provide in Kimura, with an overhead module and rail attachment, with the system of Selle as a simpler device to produce the same result.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims active above have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 3612

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
